Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 30, 2018, Arconic Inc. (“Arconic” or the “Company”) reached an agreement to sell its Eger, Hungary forgings business. The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2018, subject to customary closing conditions. The Company expects to record a restructuring-related charge representing a loss on the sale of approximately $40 million pre-tax. The charge primarily relates to the non-cash impairment of the net book value of the business. The sale is part of Arconic’s ongoing strategy review.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains statements that relate to future events and expectations and as such constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include those containing such words as "anticipates," "believes," "could," "estimates," "expects," "forecasts," "goal," "guidance," "intends," "may," "outlook," "plans," "projects," "seeks," "sees," "should," "targets," "will," "would," or other words of similar meaning. All statements that reflect Arconic’s expectations, assumptions or projections about the future, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding the completion of the sale of the Eger, Hungary forgings business and the expected financial impact of the sale. These statements reflect beliefs and assumptions that are based on Arconic’s perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors Arconic believes are appropriate in the circumstances. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by these statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: (a) deterioration in global economic and financial market conditions generally; (b) failure or delays in the receipt or satisfaction of, or unacceptable or burdensome conditions imposed in connection with, all closing conditions to the transaction; (c) unfavorable changes in the markets served by Arconic; (d) Arconic’s inability to realize expected benefits, in each case as planned and by targeted completion dates, from acquisitions, divestitures, facility closures, curtailments, expansions, or joint ventures; and (e) the other risk factors summarized in Arconic’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and other reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Arconic disclaims any intention or obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether in response to new information, future events, or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.
